

6516205065.txt

with all the advancements in the technology fields and with businesses stemming from the advancements. I feel this too is just a logical extension of the satellite radio programming. Let those of us who CHOOSE XMradio or other such services the access to all information. This is Still a country of free enterprise isn't it? The radio broadcasting companies need to deal with the competition now. I say let our satellite providers do what we pay for and that is a service we CHOOSE.
Donna Maiello